A coveted location, a prestigious position in a street filled with similarly classy homes, and a family abode with all the space, all the zones, all the variety and versatility your family could ever hope for - this is simply a fantastic family property. Nestled among lovely parks and reserves in a serene street, the home itself gives you big, easy-flowing living spaces, a large fifth bedroom ideal for guests and extended family, or easily converted into a study or office for the student or home-based worker. The living areas are clustered so that, combined with the entertainer's deck, you get a delightful indoor-outdoor hosting experience as you overlook your pool and lovely, established backyard. The good-sized parcel of land is charmingly treed and, of course, perfectly positioned.
