This fetching two-storey Tudor cottage is a family haven. Nestled cosily in a coveted, quiet cul-de-sac in Glenhaven, it will appeal to everyone from the connoisseur to the handyman. For those seeking eye-pleasing interiors and exteriors, the Tudor appeal of the facades and roof, and the modern appointments inside are a delight. The private spaces are large, and the living areas are roomy, open, easy-flowing and clustered to take maximum advantage of the indoor-outdoor hosting opportunity provided by the extensive covered entertaining area. With abundant workshop room and yard space, this superb residence gives the far-sighted owner plenty of scope to achieve any vision they have it.

It sits on the high side of a sought-after street, and its beautiful, low-maintenance, grassed grounds extend to 919.1sqm of premium Glenhaven land, in a convenient
