This is a great home for family, friends and fun. Its abundant covered and paved entertaining areas also serve as excellent places to escape with a book, a wine or a cuppa during the hectic weekdays. On the weekends, combined with the pool area, they become an entertaining extravaganza.

Set in a peaceful cul-de-sac, in a precinct that is increasingly sought-after, this superb double-storey home has secluded, accommodating private spaces, large, sweeping living areas clustered to maximise family time and weekend revelry and opening out via large stacker doors to the breathtaking entertaining areas for delightful indoor-outdoor hosting. It has been renewed inside and out with thoroughly modern and attractive appointments, and is filled with character and charm. You and your family must see this outstanding family abode.
