

7 Floreat Place Seven Hills NSW

4  2  2

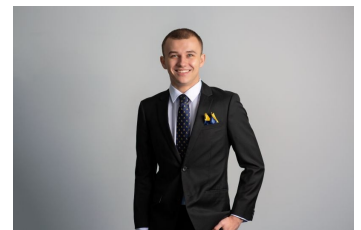

Nestled in a serene cul-de-sac, this great family home is comfy in every way, with large, open living areas and covered entertaining areas that, combined, add up to an entertainer's delight. The gardens are attractively established, the home is solid, practical, has served its owners well and is ready to do it all again! This abode has a bit of everything: the promise of lovely memories with family and friends, and the potential for even more for the imaginative owner who sees it for what it truly is. Adjacent to a friendly family park and positioned in an extra-convenient location close to the best amenities around, including shopping and transport, this is simply a great place to settle.
