Occupying five low-maintenance, high-class acres in the most sought-after part of beautiful Dural, this stunning property is imposing, filled with character inside and out, and meticulously modern. Wake up every morning to the sights, sounds and scents of true Australian bushland. The setting is serene, the cul-de-sac is a cosy, family-friendly enclave, and the block is attractively and tastefully landscaped, with tiered gardens.

Internally, the home is a breathtaking blend of country and contemporary, filled with personality touches, sweeping spaces and versatile rooms. Solid oak barn-style doors, partially exposed brick walls, inbuilt wood stackers, brick flooring, arched wrought-iron doors, towering cathedral ceilings and so much more characterise this superb dwelling.
