Filled with character and plenty of options for everyday living and entertaining, this lovely family home is embracing and accommodating, situated on a generous, well-established helping of Kings Langley land, and nestled in a serene cul-de-sac handy to great amenities.

A great combination of everyday convenience and delightful hosting options, its private areas are roomy, its living spaces are easy-flowing and large, and it has amenities enough to make the busy weekdays a breeze. Come the weekend, the living areas combine with the expansive covered entertainer's deck and separate covered pergola for a delightful hosting experience. The home offers all this, and still has potential for even more, with room enough for a granny flat (Subject To
