

43 Alamar Crescent Quakers Hill NSW

3  2  2

A peaceful, desirable cul-de-sac, a family-friendly area, a coveted location on the border of Quakers Hill and Acacia Gardens, a substantial helping of prime real estate, a modern, well-appointed home - need we say more? This is simply a family bonanza! Once you've settled in, you'll realise this great abode leaves no family member wanting for anything, and what's more, there's so much potential for even more, including a simple covering for your substantial paved entertainer's courtyard, as well as space for a granny flat or student accommodation. The internal spaces are uncomplicated and accommodating, and flow comfortably. The established, attractive block offers plenty of room for the kids and pets to explore. The location is one many a buyer will be wanting to call their own.
